Dear Mr. Brown:

Thank you for your letter following our meeting in Ottawa and the suggestions of members of your Association for provincial initiatives on behalf of persons with sensitivities.

Your suggestions will be kept in mind during a ministry review and reconsideration of recommendations of the Thomson Report and the Environmental Sensitivities Workshop sponsored by Health and Welfare Canada. As well, your comments in our meeting and in your letter concerning the importance of changing attitudes, and the possibilities for doing so, are valuable and will be carefully considered.

The information you have provided and your comments have been most helpful. You will be kept informed of ministry initiatives.

Yours sincerely,

Michael Decter
Deputy Minister
